What sort of adviser are we?

Credit Union Auckland is a Qualifying Financial Entity (QFE). You can check this information on the Financial Service Providers Register at www.fspr.govt.nz.

Credit Union Auckland is licensed to take responsibility for the advisers. This includes making sure that advisers exercise care, diligence and skill in providing financial advice to you. The QFE's license means that QFE advisers do not have to be individually registered or authorized.

What services can we provide to you?

Our QFE advisers can provide personalized advice about investment and lending products which are provided or promoted by Credit Union Auckland. (‘Promoted’ has a special definition). This means that we take responsibility for the product as well as the advice.

Our branch based advisers can provide advice on

- Savings accounts
- Term Deposits
- Loans
- Insurances

Our QFE advisers cannot provide advice about other products or design a plan for dealing with all of your investment goals. If you need this service you will need to speak to an external Authorised Financial Adviser.

How do we get paid for the services that we provide to you?

We do not charge a fee for our service, but when you buy something from us, the Credit Union will benefit as we provide the products. Our advisers receive only an annual salary and do not obtain a bonus for selling our products.

Before you decide to act on our advice we will tell you more about how we and our advisers may benefit from your decision. You can also ask for more information.

What should you do if something goes wrong?

If you have a problem, concerns, or complaint about any part of our service, please tell us so that we can try to fix the problem.
